

The Arapahoe Park and Recreation District respects the privacy of its visitors to its Web Site. We strongly believe consumers must be assured that information provided online is used responsibly and appropriately.

Privacy Policy

The Arapahoe Park and Recreation District does not collect personally-identifying information about a user except for information that is voluntarily provided to us so that we can serve the user's needs and for legitimate purposes. When registering on our site, as appropriate, you may be asked to enter your name, phone number, email address or credit card information. We offer the use of a secure server. All supplied sensitive information is transmitted via SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) and then encrypted into our payment gateway provider's database only to be accessible by authorized individuals. Your information, whether public or private, will not be sold, exchanged, transferred or given to any other company for any reason whatsoever without your consent, other than for the express purpose of delivering the service requested.

How Does APRD Use Data Collected?

APRD uses information voluntarily submitted by customers in the following ways:

- To process program registration transactions
- To send periodic emails about new and existing programs, special events and renewal timelines.
- To improve customer service
- To improve our website

Disclosure for Legal Purposes

We may be required by law to share your personal information and non-personal information pursuant to judicial or government subpoenas, warrants or orders. If we are required to do so, we will, of course, obey the law. In addition, notwithstanding any term to the contrary in this Privacy Policy, we reserve the right to use and disclose your personal and non-personal information in order to investigate, prevent or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, situations involving potential threats to the physical safety of any person, violations of this Website's Terms of Use or as otherwise required by law.
